

Literature for Our Time 2016-17

An Hour of Talk and Conversation with

MONA AWAD

February 17, 2017, 3-4pm

Isabel Bader Theatre, Victoria University, 93 Charles St W
Hosted by Denise Cruz, Department of English, University of Toronto

ALL WELCOME

Mona Awad was born in Montreal and received her BA from York U. Her writing has appeared in TIME, The Walrus, VICE, McSweeney's, Electric Literature, and elsewhere. Her debut novel-in-stories, 13 Ways of Looking at a Fat Girl (Penguin) won the 2016 Amazon First Novel Award and is shortlisted for the 2016 Scotiabank Giller Prize. She received an MA in English Literature from the University of Edinburgh and an MFA in Fiction from Brown University. She is currently a PhD candidate in Creative Writing and English Literature at the University of Denver.

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY
IN THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

English
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO