

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

Literature for Our Time 2016-17

An Hour of Talk and Conversation with

DAVID CHARIANDY

January 27, 2017, 3-4pm

Isabel Bader Theatre, Victoria University, 93 Charles St W
Hosted by Denise Cruz, Department of English, University of Toronto

ALL WELCOME

David Chariandy is a writer and critic who lives in Vancouver and teaches at Simon Fraser University. His first novel, entitled Soucouyant (Arsenal Pulp Press, 2007), was nominated for eleven literary prizes internationally, including the Governor General's Award (shortlisted), the Amazon.ca/Books in Canada First Novel Award (shortlisted), the Scotiabank Giller Prize (longlisted), and the International IMPAC Dublin Literary Award (longlisted). His second novel, entitled Brother, is forthcoming from McClelland & Stewart.

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY
IN THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

English
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO